I'm sorry but I can't answer those questions.

Jan

I am looking at Probert Doc. 181.

Is this a final Judgment form which appeal should be taken?

Further the last sentence of the order says

"No further action will be taken in this case until the Ninth Circuit issues its opinion regarding the interlocutory appeal"

Doc 181, p.7.

IT doesn't look like a final judgment but I want to be clear.

I would file the Notice of Appeal (in the District Court) but it looks like that might be forbidden.

Please let me know today or tomorrow.

Thanks

Ken

Subject: Probert - Ken - thanks for the status report but really wasn't wanting it until May 6 - thinking maybe there might be some news by then.
